The singing, conducted by Miss Munger McClure, a new and interesting feature of the school, was introduced only five week ago. The five lessens had certainly been well taught to apt pupils. The proper care of a bed room came first, questions asked by the instructress and answered by the school Two little girls then stepped to the front tions previously described. The clothing was laid out to air, matress turned from end to end, the clothing then replaced, the teacher questioning how and why such things were done, the girls giving the answers. Next came a mock dinner. to the set, a family of four girls took their places.

Two wai resses served the meal in three courses, consisting of: 1st-soup Meat, vegetables, etc. 3d-Desert. The rules of etiquette were observed throughout. The girls moved promptly and quietly in their work. Mr. Moosa and wife, dressed in Egyptian costume, talked to the children in a very pleasing manner-went through the pretense of a real in Egyptian style, and as he said to the children it was dolls and have no education at all, and all because they knew no Jesus there; that his country was in darkness and ignorance. some believers in one religion, others in an other, but they knew little of the true God that is ulling our land with loving hearts fortunate ones, both in our own and foreign

Rev. Henry Tuckley in Urbana.

Tomorrow evening Rev. Henry Tuckley, pastor of St Paul's church, Springfield, will address a Union Sunday school meeting at New York Cream Cheese, Grace church. There will certainly be a large attendance. The object of the meeting will interest all who are in any way concerned in Sunday school or home mission work and the ability and popularity Westerns and Southerns to extinguish a sake.
